About cookies:

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your machine to help the site provide a better user experience. Cookies are text files stored on your computer, and therefore cannot be used to infect your computer with a virus or allow malicious code to run on your computer. So, cookies are not deemed dangerous.

What are cookies used for?

In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping carts, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. A cookie however in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you. Therefore, we would like to inform you that Grovelands Park Preschool do not collect individual user data via cookies.

Controlling cookies

On first visit to our website you can accept our cookies policy via our pop up at the base of the website. You may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser for guidance.
